Well Known Mining Promoter Passes Through

J. C. Galvin, the well known mining promoter, and Mr. Sam Silverman, arrived up from the south last Thursday and left Friday morning for Telegraph Creek on the Winifred and made the round trip on her and left again for Seattle on the Mariposa.

The trip was made for the purpose of inspecting the mining property at Devil's Elbow which in all probabilities the company which Mr. Silverman represents will bond and develop this summer.

Mr. Galvin expects to be back in the course of a couple of weeks with a party of mining men who will go into the Cassiar country and thoroughly examine the holdings of Mr. Galvin on Dease Lake and vicinity.

Mr. Galvin is widely known and has been associated with the development of many of the important mining sections of Alaska and he predicts a bright future before the Cassiar country. It will be remembered that Mr. Galvin is the man who took the big steam drill into that country a year ago but by the time it arrived on the property the season was so late that very little work was done with it, but they expect a big showing this summer.

Get the habit. The Rink is the place.

Ball Benefit Saturday Night

As announced for several days the big benefit show will be given at The Rink Saturday night for the benefit of raising funds for the Base Ball grounds. All other towns in Alaska have the National game and why not Wrangell? We have been in the old rut long enough. If everyone will work for it we will have the great game here for the 4th of July. So come out Saturday night and help and see something for your money. The entire receipts goes to the Base Ball Fund.

Attention

Arctic Brothers

Special meeting Sunday evening at 8:00 P. M. in the Lodge Rooms to arrange for the funeral of our deceased brother, Capt. N. J. Svindseth. All brothers are requested to attend.

Signed,

Wm. W. Reade,
Arctic Chief.

S. C. Shurick
Arctic Recorder.

Mayor J. G. Grant Make Statement

As President of the Common Council, and Mayor of Wrangell, I believe it is within my jurisdiction to make a few statements of facts in regard to the administration of the city for the coming year and the election to be held next Monday to vote on the question of whether intoxicating liquors shall be sold in Wrangell the coming year or not.

The amount of income derived from the licenses of the saloons is $4150.00 per year, all of this amount goes into the treasury of the town, and a certain portion goes to the school fund to carry on the schools of the town, now if the citizens of Wrangell vote the saloons out at the coming election this amount will be entirely lost. Wrangell now has under completion a large new dam on which over ten thousand dollars has been spent and if this revenue is not at the disposal of the council this year the work on the dam will have to be stopped and the present dam is proving more insufficient every day. Another phrase of the election is the schools, without the license money from the saloons it will be impossible to have much more than a half term of school unless other means are arranged to pay for the same. Another is that as the council we do not believe that it is fair to the business men who for years have been in business here and have helped in the upbuilding of the town to take away this revenue and give nothing in return at this time.

Signed,
J. G. GRANT,
Mayor.

Capt. N. J. Svindseth Passes Away Suddenly

Capt. N. J. Svindseth, one of the best known of Southeastern Alaska, passed away very suddenly last Wednesday morning at the Swedish Hospital, Seattle, Wash. Word of his sudden demise was learned in a telegram from Seattle friends to Mr. L. C. Patenaude, who immediately wired back asking that the body be sent north on the first boat.

Capt. N. J. Svindseth is well known all over Alaska and has been associated with her growth for many years. Mr. Svindseth was born in Norway and came to America when but 16 years of age, and for many years made his home in Oregon, and served two terms in the early legislatures of that state. Since coming to Alaska he has made Wrangell his home the greater part of the time; and was elected and served in the first Alaska Legislature as Representative from this district, at which place he made a wonderful record for himself. Mr. Svindseth was 56 years of age.

His death was caused from a complication of diseases, principally Bright's disease. Mr. Svindseth has a brother, but we are unable to learn his address, and a host of friends who will mourn his departure. His funeral will be held here under the auspices of Camp Wrangell, No. 28, Arctic Brotherhood, of which he is Past Arctic Chief.

A good show at the Photoshow tonight.

New Steamer On Her Initial Trip

The new river boat Tyconda arrived up from the south last Saturday morning. Capt. Kildahl one of the best known navigators of the coast piloted the vessel up from Seattle.

The Tyconda is a trim little stern wheeler and is just the right size for work on the Stikine and undoubtedly will be a success.

The vessel made an experiment trip on the river last Sunday, taking a small party up as far as Andrews Creek and left again on Monday morning for her initial trip to Telegraph. On the trip up she has five tons of freight and one passenger.

The Tyconda is owned by the H. & M. Transportation Company and the vessel is in charge of Capt. Holbrook, and Capt. Mangin is general manager of the company.

On her next trip up the vessel will make excursion rates to anyone who would care to make the trip to Telegraph. The fare round trip will be $10.00, meals and berth extra, meals 74c. and berth 75c. per night. This will afford an unusual opportunity for an outing trip up the river as the weather is ideal and the mosquitoes and flies not what they will be latter.

Get the habit, the Rink.

Council Asks For Warner

The council met in special session last Monday evening and took up the matter of the townsite survey. A large number of the business men were present at the meeting and from the voice of all those present the council ordered a petition sent to the general land office at Juneau asking that Mr. Warner be sent back here to complete the survey as soon as he is at liberty to do so. While this will cause some delay in the completion of the survey, it will be much more satisfactory to the citizens than if a new man was sent here to complete the work.

The Hurd-Hibbard Attraction presented a vaudeville show at the Rink last Saturday and Sunday nights. The Rose City Trio of male singers made the hit of the show and they are certainly above the average, the rest of the show was ordinary. The company left on the Jefferson for the north and they expect to play as far north as Fairbanks and will play here again on their way south in September.

Printing Point Does Not Bob Up and Down

In an L. C. Smith & Bros. Typewriter the point on the paper which is to receive the type impression is stationary at the instant the type hits. The carriage does not bob up and down when the shift is made to write capitals.

Why?

Because the type is shifted—not the carriage.

The only movement of the carriage is back and forth on its closely adjusted ball bearing runways—and this does not take place while the print is being made. There is no lifting of the carriage.

This is one reason why L. C. Smith & Bros. type-writing is free from blurs and every letter in the right place.

Notice Of Election

Pursuant to an Order of the Hon. Robert W. Jennings, Judge of U. S. District Court, District of Alaska, First Division I have taken a census and prepared a list of the male and female citizens over the age of 21 years of the town of Wrangell and residing within two miles thereof who are qualified to vote at an election to be held on May 24th 1915 in said town of Wrangell, on the question as to whether or not a majority of said citizens and residents consent to the sale of liquor within said town. The census have been taken by two reliable enumerators and the census book is now in my possession at my office, subject to inspection or correction by any one up to the day of election. In case any persons having the necessary qualifications to vote at said election have been overlooked in the taking of the census, or may have been absent at the time of taking the census, they may deposit their vote with me on or before the day of said election in a sealed envelope to be counted as per instructions of the Judge of the U. S. Dist. Court.

Said election will be held in the town hall of the town of Wrangell between the hours of 9 A. M. and 7 P. M. on the 24th day of May 1915.

Instructions to voters: To vote for licensing the sale of liquors write the word "Wet" on your ballot; To vote against licensing the sale of liquors write the word "Dry" on your ballot.

Wm. G. Thomas,
U. S. Commissioner,
Wrangell Alaska, May, 12, 1915.

Power of Signal Lights.

In tests of oil lamps as weather signals at night, reported by G. Ishida from the Japanese meteorological station at Hainan, it has been found that the light of flat wicks is much brighter at a distance than that of round wicks and that the range of red lights is more than double that of green. The latter became practically invisible at two miles, while red lights were still bright at three miles.

Mr. McNarney of the local cable force made a trip trout fishing last Friday and what is more he came back with a big basket of speckled beauties and to prove his angling ability he presented the Editor with a small trout which measured 31 inches that he caught with a line and reel. L. C. Patenaude and Harry Gartley made the trip also.

The gypsy woman who was telling fortunes in the town last week was arrested and taken before Judge Thomas on a charge of petty larceny, charged with stealing $1.00 from Harry the Jap at the Boston Cafe, she was found guilty and fined $5.00 and cost. The gypsies were ordered to leave town on the first boat by the town officials and left as ordered.

At a recent meeting of the Civic Improvement Club Miss Drownski gave over to the Club the sum of $77.15, receipts from school entertainments; this money to be applied towards the purchase of a lot for the public school by the Club. Should the Club fail to purchase the lot the money is to be returned to the school fund.

The "Round the World Photographers" who have been taking pictures in the town for the past two weeks, announce that they will leave for the north on the Jefferson leaving next Sunday. Since arriving in Wrangell they have taken some very fine photographs and all their work has been first class. They are doing their work in the first of the McCormack cottages where they can be found at all hours.

The big sailing ship the Star of Greenland of the A. P. A. cannery arrived up from the south last Saturday morning. The ship was nearly two weeks late this trip on account of headlined weather. One of the good stories of the trip up as the bookkeeper for the cannery while in San Francisco this winter bought him an Evinrude engine and now boat for same to push, and when the big ship came to a stop, he had the little cruiser lowered and started away for a ride and when about five miles away from the ship the wind came up and as the sails were set the ship started to sail away. It was an exciting race for a while, although the captain of the ship says he will never allow an Evinrude aboard again, and the bookkeeper says that his Evinrude can outrun any sailing ship afloat.

Wrangell W. C. T. U.

The following letter is the simple statement of facts of the town of Sitka, which was voted "dry" a year ago.

Sitka, Alaska, May 13, 1915

Miss Nellie Mae Taylor,
Pres. Wrangell W. C. T. U.,
Wrangell, Alaska.

My dear Miss Taylor:

Your letter of May 6th is to hand today. It gives me great pleasure to answer your questions as far as I am able.

First: The question of the relation of schools to saloons does not affect Sitka. Sitka is not an incorporated town: the teachers are paid by the Government, from funds under the control of the Governor, therefore the license money has no bearing whatever on the school question.

Second: The closing of the saloons has benefited the fishing industry. The superintendent of the Cold Storage told the writer that the captains of fishing boats were glad that the saloons in Sitka had been closed, because they could now come in without fear that their men would go on a debauch and that they would now be fit for work when they again started out. There were more fishing boats in Sitka this spring than has ever been before. At the present time, however, there are not many because The Booth Fisheries Company has not begun purchasing fish, but when they open, it is expected that there will be more fishermen in town than ever before. The arguments which you say that the "wets" in your town advance, that the fisherman would not come if the town went dry, were also advanced here. That such argument are fallacious, are proved by the above mentioned facts.

Third: This is but a small place and there has been no noticeable difference in the general prosperity of the town, but I can say that there is certainly no decrease in values, but there is a marked difference in the condition of several of the families whose breadwinners were persistent drinkers. We are not afraid that any of the dire calamities which you are threatened with shall visit us because of no saloons.

Fourth: The closing law has been enforced. For some little time, there were one or two "blind pigs" but they have been effectively discouraged and the town is, at this writing, with the exception of bottle goods brought in occasionally on the boats to private customers, I believe, entirely dry. The sentiment of the people was shown in the spring election. Although the wet and dry question was not presented directly, nevertheless, the ticket that was known to be anti-saloon was elected by two and one-half to one, representing the other side.

Fifth: Arrests have decreased to such an extent that one of the jail guards has been dispensed with. The old "topers" that used to be regular inhabitants of the jail, are now respectable citizens who work for their living instead of depending on the jail for their living instead of depending on the jail for their board. The Marshal stated to Mrs. C. T. Hatcher, on her recent visit, that the closing of the saloons made a decided difference to him: Formerly, the habitual drunks, who were given jail sentences, did all the work in the jail; the cleaning, the cooking and the washing, and he received sixty cents per diem for their board. Now, he states, that he has to hire the work done at his own expense and board them besides. There has also been a decided decrease in the fees of the United States Commissioner, for cases brought before him.

A year's trial has so strengthened the sentiment in favor of prohibition here that the saloon-keepers who were put out of business who were put out of business a year ago, and have since made persistent efforts to ingratiate themselves with their old customers, by free gifts of liquors, have finally become so discouraged that one has left town entirely and the other sent his bar out of town, by the last boat and stated that he would never try to get a license in Sitka again.

Sincerely,
Margaret T. Georgeson
Pres. Sitka W. C. T. U.

You can't buy dry goods and "wet" goods with the same money

You can't protect the saloon and the home with the same ballot.
